

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Amy Basinger

864.770.1331

abasinge@bju.edu

Come Set the Table for Tea with the Charleston Silver Lady

Greenville, SC—On July 18, the Bob Jones University Museum & Gallery (M&G) invites you to enjoy tea as you never have before—with the Charleston Silver Lady, herself, Dawn Corley. Hosted in the Gold Ballroom of Greenville’s Westin Poinsett Hotel, Ms. Corley will introduce guests to some of the beautiful and unusual objects comprising her private collection, allowing attendees an intimate view of Victorian tea customs that promises to be equal parts entertaining and enlightening.

Nationally recognized as a silver, jewelry, and antiques expert, Ms. Corley is a much sought after speaker, with past presentations to U.S. presidents, foreign dignitaries, and Fortune 500 companies. Back by popular demand, M&G is thrilled to host Ms. Corley once again, in partnership with the Westin Poinsett Hotel.

Come join M&G and Dawn Corley, July 18th, 2 p.m. at the Westin Pointsett Hotel. For M&G members, the cost to this event is $25; for non-members, the cost is $30. To reserve a table for six, the cost is $165. All event fees are nonrefundable.

To register or for additional information, check www.bjung.org or contact the events & marketing coordinator at (864) 770-1331.

###